Feb 21- Leaving Toronto for California -
 Ella & Bess, wearing Mr Pitts violets.

Arriving in chair car was annoyed to have a man wipe his hands of my chair tidy. On reaching London it rained & turned to a blizzard on reaching Chicago
 - lots of snow - cold as charity. An agent put us on the train, & we boarded the "Challenger", same old pullmans, but nice lounge car & diner.

Feb 22. Read "Gone with the Wind" continuously Flat uninteresting farm scenery. Saw Cheyenne a real western town.

Feb 23. Now in mountainous country. Saw two deer, wild ducks, lots of canyons and deserts in between. Astounded to see Redwinged blackbirds away off here. Dorothy McBride of Minneapolis, a cute kid aboard. Got off at Caliente, a famous gambling western town in Wyoming & Nebraska.
 Conductor told yarns of train robbers, one who told the officers first, - another who did it single handed & the porters hair turned white. was with the Lammerts of Pittsburgh all even.

Feb 24. Arr. in E Los Angeles, met late by Uncle Moll & Aunt Ruth. Had breakfast at Miss Harwoods & Mrs Camerons then onto room.
 Cold as the Alaska pie, & unpacked a bit.

8.37

Had lunch at El Paseo a Mexican joint very nice - high seasoning. lovely pattern & painting thick tables. Clusters outside.

Bars, apartments & art studios & cafe all in one -
On to Pasadena & orange groves, lovely palms. most flowers frost bitten.

Home in rain. supper in Mallard Cafe
& on to movie with Miss H & Mrs C & Bertram
Feb 25 - Rain again, on to Mt Washington
Hollywood, Griffiths Park Observatory, Greek Theatre & home. Very cold. stayed at Camerons & played Bridge - Brie Brie called

Feb 26 On to Santa Monica to Miramar for lunch. ate first swordfish. lovely sunset Boulevard. On to Japanese Gardens on Palisades (high cliff) There we saw miniature sunken gardens,
The wishing well, glass water figures life size statues, pergolas & the finest of gardens beautifully kept. Went thru Beverly Hills, & saw movies homes.
Tired when we arrived home, wrote & read during evening. Still cold!

Feb 27. ^{ella} Had lunch at Mrs Harwood's
& I went shopping downtown. Bullocks & Robinsons are grand stores. I got a heret, and had lunch in a tea room. Back to bridge at night.

Feb 28. Bill B. called & we moved to Beverly Hills, first having breakfast at his place. Coloured dishes & all coloured serviettes are quite the vogue. We met Jap & Jacques Van Ransdall & their son Peter. They are very nice.

We had dinner later with Bertha La Brie. Turkey & plum pudding. Met a Mr & Mrs Charlie Hemming. Mr La Brie is big & jolly; & we had fun. Cocktails for all.

Mar 1. We window shopped in the morning & I went to town in the afternoon. Was worn out so stayed in.

Mar 2. Arose early for the 7³⁰ train. Uncle Mel & Aunt R. picked us up and we drove to Wilmington. It was foggy and cold so I went below. Some were seasick. The Island was clearer as the boat docked at Catalina. The dock hands wore blue shirts & yellow straw hats. An Mexican orchestra played at the dock. Big sombreros & red ties & black suits with laced trousers. The bus drivers & couriers had sand shirts & trousers with red godets & silver buttons, bright wide red belts with three straps, black ties & black flat brimmed hats with chords. We went out in the flat-glass bottomed boats, & saw few fish, mostly gold fish, blue fish, cucumber fish and pine needle parasites. The sea weed had long leaves held together with string ~~leaves~~ feather stitching. A diver swam under the boat for 2 mins at once. Later I went to see the sea lions & they were fun. Got swell coloured movies. Back to the hotel and a show after supper. Took in the Bird farm & saw white peacocks & every bird in the world. Some talked to us. ^{Mar 3} Next day we went on the summit drive, a bus took us to the top, and edge looked terribly close. It looked soft, but really was hard. Our driver was an Olympic sped skater in '32. Another lad spoke on the history of the Island. We could see a movie ship at sea. Noah Berry filming the "last slaver". They stayed at our hotel. After shopping we rushed to the boat & had a grand trip home. Uncle Moll had dinner with us. It was his birthday.

Mar 4. Year ago today I sailed for N. Y from England. Bertha took us to Luccas for lunch, in their cocktail bar. It was fun. Waitresses in bright costume, and one room very subdued lighting & very gay - like Germany more. We drove on to see B's daughter Isolde Klenzmann & husband (Chem. engineer). Had cocktails and on to home. Saw our movies and they were very good.

Mar 5. Shopped & got smart camp clothes. Went to Mt. Wilson with Uncle Mel. Up 6000 ft. Last five miles dangerous with snow slides & loose gravel, - very narrow road. The Observatory had 100" telescope. Had coffee at hotel then on down. Ears hurt like hell. Ruth scared to death. All had dinner at Schetz - tired, - but out to a movie with Bill at the Chinese Theatre. Marvellous picture "Waterloo," with all movie actors at battle. Meriow, Powell, Chaplin etc. Life size Chinese figures all over, & ushers in smart pajamas.

Mar 6. Got a Ford coupe for 15.00 Bucks a week. Bill & Juju Van Rosendaal phoned & invited us to lunch on Olvera st. in the Mexican Bozars. Mother Juju & Mrs Happel went in the Olds coupe & Jacques Peter & Jim the old Ford. 8.41 Jac gave us a wonderful dinner, wine, soup, chicken & rice & fruit. A Mexican orchestra, dancers castanets etc. Jumping beans, ash trays, straw horses etc were all on sale. Went in the original candle shop. Candles that burned steady for one year. Krove Jac back & went in for a moment. He is nice, we have a date next week. Came on home then to a show. A guy backed into me, but little damage done.

Mar 7. Called for Vera Ludlow, & on to Pasadena. Lots of traffic. Ate in S. Pasadena, called on Mrs Hornibrook & back home in time for dinner. Spent quiet evening. Wrote letters.

Mar 8. On to Laguna. Vera Mother & I went to Long Beach for lunch. That was where they had the bad earthquake at one time. The roads were still bad. Had a nice lunch in the Olympia Cafe & a lovely gift shop next door where I got some rings. Seal Beach & Huntington consisted mostly of oil wells. There you saw rows & rows all working at once, along side of the ocean.
